Pursuant to the Judicial Conference Policy on electronic availability of transcripts, electronic access to this transcript is restricted to court users and case participants for 5 business days from the date of filing. Parties should review the transcript for any of the following items that should be redacted under the Judicial Conference's privacy policy: Social Security numbers should be redacted to show only the last four digits; birth dates should contain only the year of birth; individuals known to be minors should be referred to with initials; and financial account numbers should be redacted to the last four digits. If a redaction is requested, the filing party has 21 calendar days from the date the Notice of Intent to Request Redaction was filed to provide to the transcriber a list of items to be redacted, indicating the location of the identifiers within the transcript. During this time period, a party can, by motion, request that additional information be redacted. This time may be extended for good cause shown. All motions for extension should be filed before expiration of the deadline for which the extension is sought. The transcript company will file the redacted transcript with the court with the title "Redacted Transcript" 30 days after receiving the list of items to be redacted. If no Notice of Intent to Request Redaction is filed, the transcript will be made electronically available to the general public.
